Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

NCRA

Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

Certified Legal Video Specialist

CLVSs are recognized for their high level of skill and understanding of all aspects of video deposition recording, court proceedings, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and deposition best practices. CLVSs have attended training that focuses on using video in the legal environment in conjunction with a court reporter and have successfully passed a written exam as well as a hands-on production exam.

