

Angels Quarterly is published by the National Court Reporters Foundation (NCRF) exclusively for you, our Foundation supporters, to keep you updated on the programs your donations help fund. Your review is appreciated.

Like a good neighbor, NCRF cares

By Marjorie Peters

Dear NCRF Donor,

Hoping you have a spring in your step this season of renewal! You are receiving this Angels Quarterly because you are a giver. One fact that all our National Court Reporter Foundation leaders agree upon is that there are both health and happiness benefits to giving. By giving to NCRF, you are also helping to strengthen the court reporting, captioning, and legal videography communities.

NCRF Ask Me Anything helps attendees get ready for Houston

NCRF hosted its first Ask Me Anything Zoom event earlier this month with the theme Take Off for Houston. “It can be scary attending your first NCRA Conference, even your fifth,” said NCRF Trustee Sandy Narup, RPR, who came up with the topic. “There is so much going on and just knowing there are others in the same boat is comforting. I thought this theme was perfect to let our members know of the intricacies of how to get to the hotel, how to meet your colleagues or soon-to-be colleagues, and how to dress for the Member Recognition Gala. Our speaker volunteers ‘blasted’ us off with such great information.”
